

Janet Copenhaver

Collinsville, VA 24078

Having a school division in a rural is very difficult to have your students to compete globally with other school divisions. Our students should be connected and have the same opportunity for digital communication as larger school districts in more affluent neighborhoods. For these reasons, I support using erate funding to begin a network infrastructure for broadband connectivity for learning.